

Women at the Well Dialogues Visioning Carmel for the 21st Century

To: Session 4 Participants

October 16, 2019

Dear Sisters,

We are looking forward to connecting with you on Tuesday, October 22nd for Session 4 of Women at the Well Dialogues: Session 4: Exploring our Emerging Future: Communal Discernment The Zoom link to Session 4 is as follows: <https://zoom.us/j/578706960>

It would be helpful if you would sign in to the meeting at least 15 minutes early. But feel free to sign in up to 30 minutes before the Session begins. This helps Celia to work out all the kinks before we get started. Our time frame is the same as previous sessions:

Eastern 1:30 - 3pm; Central 12:30 - 2pm; Pacific 10:30am –12 noon; Kirkintilloch 6:30 - 8pm

Attached is a list of participants and small groups for Session 4 & 5. We're delighted to be welcoming several of the Kirkintilloch sisters as participants in our dialogue!

The time allotted for small-group sharing will include a 5-minute break. Please remember communal discernment relies upon personal discernment. Therefore, it is an expectation that each participant come prepared with her own discernment to the question:

How would moving the (NCA) association to a shared model of formation impact community #4?

Please note: this question in the case study refers to a shared model of formation at all levels, both initial and on-going formation. Each facilitator will begin the small-group sharing and then invite each sister to speak for up to 2 minutes on where they landed in their personal discernment.

If you have any questions about the Session, please feel free to be in touch with Claire. She is happy to assist in any way.

Looking forward to seeing each of you on October 22nd!

With blessings and gratitude,
Claire, Elizabeth, Celia
